

Clink Events General Manager Trainer

Salary circa circa £50k

This is a fabulous opportunity to join the team at The Clink Restaurant as Clink Events General Manager Trainer.

The Clink Restaurant has developed an engaging and integrated 5 step training program which gives prisoners a chance to gain professional qualifications whilst in prison, and supports them on their release in finding employment in the catering & hospitality industry. Prisoners have the chance to gain City & Guilds NVQ level 2 qualifications in food preparation, food service and food safety, as well as gain experience whilst working events.

As General Manager Trainer for Clink Events, you will take primary responsibility for all our events, ensuring the highest levels of customer service and satisfaction are achieved, in line with our fine dining philosophy and values in the rehabilitation of prisoners. You will be an enthusiastic, outgoing and entrepreneurial General Manager or Events Manager who enjoys training and developing others, who can hit the ground running and be involved in all areas of events. Close collaboration with our Head Office Team, Restaurants and Head Chef is essential for success.

You will balance your responsibilities for Events with the training and development of our Prisoner Learners, supporting them to achieve their learning objectives and obtain their City & Guilds qualifications.

As the successful candidate, you will be incredibly passionate about food, have a huge affinity with The Clink and show a great sense of style when it comes to the design, implementation and management of bespoke events. You understand what it takes to deliver an amazing customer journey, have a fastidious attention to detail, and a sound understanding of commercial event catering finance. Finally, you are an excellent communicator with all genres of clients, with strong written and creative skill. The ability to use your judgement, initiative and to multi-task several tasks at once is essential to the success of this position.

The role will be based at HMP Downview and you will work closely with The Centre Point charity and our prisoner learners to deliver bespoke events at five-star fine dining levels in various central London locations. You will also work closely with your Head Chef Trainer Events on menu development and food production for all events.

The Clink Restaurant Offers:

- Highly competitive salary
- 33 days holiday (including Bank Holidays)
- Company pension scheme
- Free meals on duty and uniform provided
- Development and support to achieve your TAQA (assessing qualification)
- Childcare Vouchers

To Apply for these positions, you must pass the following requirements:

- Ministry of Justice Enhanced Vetting
- The right to work in the UK, and provide original documentation as part of the recruitment process.

This is a truly inspirational role where, as an innovative and creative Events Manager, you have the opportunity to mentor and engage others to turn their lives around.

If this position interests you and you wish to apply, please write us a beautifully crafted cover letter explaining why you would be the perfect person to join the team at The Clink with your CV.

Please note that due to the huge numbers of applications we receive for any of our vacancies, we may not be able to respond to every application personally. However, we would sincerely like to thank you for your time and consideration, and we look forward to hearing from you.
